

Il Sentiero degli Dei

From Agerola to Nocelle walking through paradise. This is an extraordinarily panoramic footpath above the Amalfi Coast. The Sentiero degli Dei links the tiny hilltop town of Agerola, with Nocelle, a fraction of Positano nestled on the slopes of Monte Pertuso. The name of the footpath, The Path of Gods, is an indication of the spectacular scenery en route. Ideally, walkers should walk from Agerola to Nocelle, and not vice-versa, this way the route is a gentle downhill one, with magnificent views of the Amalfi Coast and the island of Capri.

Departure point: Agerola or Praiano

Arrival point: Nocelle, a fraction of Positano

Duration: about 3 hours

Kilometers: 7-8 km

Difficulty: easy

Following the Sentiero degli Dei

The Path of Gods begins in Bomerano, a fraction of Agerola. Walkers can reach Agerola by SITA bus departing from Amalfi. Ask the driver to let you off at the Bomerano stop. From here, follow the road signs which will lead you to the start of the walk. The route is indicated by white and red signs with 02 written on them. From Colle Serra, walkers make their way downhill until reaching a fountain, to the left of which there is an old mule path, which begins in Praiano. The Path of Gods continues along the road to the right. At this point the scenery changes: from hills dotted with just a few shrubs, where walkers frequently come across grazing sheep and goats, to a typically Mediterranean landscape littered with holm-oaks, arbutus, heather and rosemary. At this stage, the path becomes more tortuous through a series of ascents and descents and breathtaking panoramas until reaching Nocelle, a fraction of Positano. In ancient times, Nocelle could only be reached on foot, through a steep flight of steps commencing in Positano. Today, walkers can decide whether to make their way downhill by bus or on foot via the 1500 steps which lead to the district of Arienzo. In summer, it is well worth descending a further 300 steps to the Arienzo beach, where you can enjoy a refreshing swim. From Arienzo, following the SS163 for about 1 kilometer, walkers will soon reach the center of Positano.

Our tips

Agerola is famous for its fiordilatte, a particular type of fresh mozzarella cheese. Before you start the walk, stop off in one of the local groceries, where you can purchase some focaccia and fiordilatte to enjoy during the journey: the perfect ingredients for a picnic worthy of gods!
